During the reign of Queen Elizabeth II, Jews and Judaism have thrived in the UK, including here in Cornwall. This is in no small way due to Her Majesty's support of Jewish institutions and her openness to other faiths besides her own deeply committed Christianity, plus the impartial way in which she welcomed people of the most diverse backgrounds. She is already deeply missed. We take comfort in that her heir and successor, King Charles III, is made in the same mould. Her memory is, therefore, already for a blessing and may it continue so to be.
Ma'am, Kehillat Kernow salutes you.

Wonderful memory of the Queen and Prince Philip's visit to RAF Scampton, Lincolnshire in 1963. My husband Michael was stationed there and was on Parade and I was amongst the onlookers. We had a close view of them.....the Queen was relaxed and always smiling whilst shaking hands with personnel.
